

NEXT STATION

CLIL BOOK
Ana Elisa Martins

2nd Edition

UNIT 5

MAKE-BELIEVE WORLD

Look at the picture and circle.

The girl thinks she can fly / swim.

UNIT 5

1 Listen, read, and match.

My friend and I like to play make-believe. We like to pretend we can do things that we can't actually do.

Sometimes, I pretend I can fly (1) or do taekwondo (2). My friend likes to pretend he can play the guitar (3). What about you?

I pretend I can _____

2 Listen and read.

A theater is a place where a play is performed. It can be big or small, outdoors or indoors.

There is visual language like sets, costumes, images, and light. There are sounds like music, noises, and voices. There is body language like gesture, movements, and expressions. And there is verbal language like scripts and lines.

Indoor theater.

International Street Theater Festival in Bucharest, Romania.

THINK TWICE

1 Circle.

Sets, costumes, images, and light are visual / verbal language.

2 Do you like theater?

UNIT 5

3 Play Sound and Action!

4 Play Transformation of Objects! Use your body, make sounds, and do an action.

1

2

5 Play a miming game. Pretend you are one of the objects below.

blender

cup

hanger

6 Think about an object. Play a miming game with your classmates.

7 Read the beginning of a story. Write two different sequences. Draw and act the scenes out.

Allison invents a spaceship to go to the Moon. When she gets there, she ...

1

2
