Hi everyone! Today's post is all about film-watching habits. How often do you watch films? Where do you watch them? What types of film do you like? Why do you decide to watch a film? I want to know!

Mehmet - 50 minutes ago

4 responses to 'Mehmet's movie blog'

I like watching films on my computer and on my smartphone. I hardly ever go to the cinema because it's expensive. I like watching science-fiction and fantasy films with good special effects, but I hate 3D.

Rudy - 44 minutes ago

I sometimes go to the cinema with my friends. We love watching thrillers, horror films and romantic comedies, but we often choose a film because we like the actors. We go to a cinema that has eight screens at my local shopping centre.

What's your favourite TV programme?

Mike, 16

Some people think that watching the news is boring, but it isn't. I watch the news every day. I like being informed and I like getting to know about what is going on around the world. I also love watching live football matches but I feel awful when my favourite team loses. My brother loves watching football too, especially Champions League football matches – some players in that league can run very fast! I sometimes watch documentaries, especially those about historical events – history is my favourite subject at school!

WORD CHECK

Jane, 15

I like reality shows. I watch programmes like The X Factor. It is a talent show for people who want to be famous. First, there is an audition. Then they sing in front of three judges. And this is very funny. Many people think they can sing well, but sometimes they sing really badly. Mum thinks that after a few weeks it is boring. I don't think so. People try really hard and they get a prize: a recording contract. In the final weeks, the viewers decide who stays and who leaves. There is only one winner. It is great!

Hi, everybody! I'm Lucia from Spain. My favourite programme is America's Got Talent. Usually, the participants sing beautifully and they offer excellent shows! It's really entertaining and sometimes great fun! I hate watching intellectual programmes. They're so boring!

Hello. I'm Theodore. I'm American. I really love watching TV and my favourite programme is NCIS. It's absolutely great! NCIS is an American police drama series involving a fictional team of special agents from the Naval Criminal Investigative Service. They conduct criminal investigations involving the US Navy and Marine Corps. My favourite character is the boss, Leroy Jethro Gibbs. He always reacts intelligently and the team always catch the bad ones!

I honestly recommend The Big Bang Theory. This is not the typical sitcom. It is dynamic and great fun. The characters are ridiculously weird. My favourite is Dr Sheldon Lee Cooper. He is a brilliant scientist and always shows his superiority. He usually mentions that his IQ is 187. But don't think he is perfect! Quite the opposite, really. He is obsessive and not sociable. He wears ridiculous clothes and can't keep secrets! I love Sheldon because he is extremely weird.
