

Teacher's Notes

Worksheets

Editable
Powerpoint

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Activities

Lesson 1

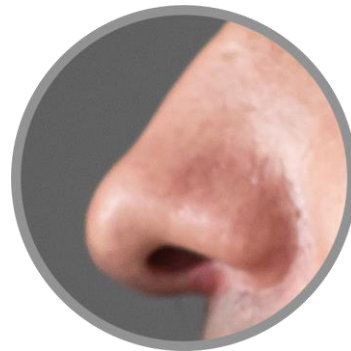

HOW DOES IT FEEL?

Look at the pictures and...

1. Name the senses you see.
2. Say what each sense is responsible for.

Are the sentences true or false?

1. Humans only have five senses: eyesight, hearing, taste, touch and smell.
1. It is possible for some people to see colours when they hear a musical note or to perceive a taste when they see an image.

DOWNLOADABLE
CONTENT

Read the text and answer the questions below

Worksheet 1
Student A

Worksheet 2
Student B

Text A

1. What is the minimum number of senses researchers believe we have?
2. How many senses do some researchers believe we have?
3. Which senses do you think are the most interesting on the list?
4. According to the text, which sense is controversial?
5. Without looking at the text, how many senses can you name?

Text B

1. Give two examples of things people who have synaesthesia do can do.
2. How many kinds of synaesthesia are there?
3. How many people have synaesthesia?
4. What part of your body is responsible for your senses?
5. What are the advantages at school a synaesthete has?

Glossary

Text A

researchers: a scientist or someone who studies a subject in a lot of detail brightness: the characteristic of reflecting a lot of light itch: the feeling that makes you want to scratch some part of your body

data: facts, information

accurate: correct, true

Text B

link: connect, relate signal: an action with a special meaning uncommon: rare, unusual, different hereditary: passed from parent to child in their genes

advantages: benefits. privileges

Now do the Kahoot quiz and check how much you learned in this lesson

