Our holiday starts

I live in Canada. It's December and it's snowing! We're going on our winter holiday today.

Beep! Beep!

'Hurry up, Jake,' shouts Dad.

Mum and Dad are waiting in the car. Dad doesn't like waiting!

Now we're on the plane. We're flying to South Africa. I like flying! I like looking out of the window at the clouds. Mum and Dad are sleeping, but I'm watching a cartoon.

Now we're walking out of the airport in South Africa. I can see my big sister, Alice! She's wearing sunglasses and a dress! I'm wearing a jumper! 'It's really hot,' I say.

Alice laughs. 'It's always hot and sunny in summer!'

Unit 7 Read a story

Unit 7 Write a brochure about a country WB: pages 80-81

Some small people come out of the houses. They're angry.

'We don't want you here. Go back to your boat!' they shout.

'But we're your friends,' says Ted's dad.

'No, you aren't,' they say.
'You're different. We're small and you're big!'

Ted sees a small boy. 'Do you like playing football?' he asks.

'Yes, I do,' says the boy.

'Let's play!' says Ted.

'OK,' says the boy. 'I'm Zane.'

Suddenly they hear a loud noise. 'Listen! What's that?' shouts Ted. 'Look! It's the mountain. There are big clouds!' shouts Ted.

'It isn't a mountain,' says Zane. 'It's a volcano and it's very hot. Run!'

Now the small people are running and shouting. They're very scared.

'Can you help us?' asks Zane.

'Yes, we can!' says Ted's dad. 'Our boat is big. Let's go!'
