

Chocolate, chocolate, everywhere

All over the world, people eat chocolate. Chocolate is a very popular food.

This picture shows a woman making chocolate over 2000 years ago!

Chocolate comes in different flavours. It also comes in different shapes and sizes.

The cocoa tree

The cocoa tree is sometimes called the chocolate tree. The cocoa tree comes from Central and South America.

The cocoa tree grows fruit. Inside the fruit are cocoa beans. These are used to make chocolate.
