

On the short bus ride from Edinburgh airport to the hotel, Otis could not sit still. Everything was so different from Jamaica. Everything was so interesting. His older sister, Taisha, and older brother, Adam, were excited about being in Edinburgh, too.

It's such a beautiful city!

It's much bigger than Montego Bay back in Jamaica!

Here's our bus stop.

The bus stopped in front of a hotel on a busy street. The bus driver helped the family carry all their bags.

You've got a lot of bags.

We're a band called Ska Three. These are our instruments.

We're here to play at the Edinburgh Festival.

The bus driver waved goodbye. He promised to come and watch them play at the festival.

Good luck with your show!

Thanks.
