

In The Woods Behind My House

In the woods behind my house,
There are wonders to uncover.

Birds that build their nests up high:
You can spot them if you look.
In the trees that touch the sky,
Between the hillside and the brook.

On the ground, just look around,
At things that crawl and slither -
Moles that tunnel and make a mound,
Snakes that make me gasp and shiver.

Leaves that hide a million lives,
Lift them up and you will see,
Bees that make their home in hives,
Among the branches of a tree.

In the woods behind my house,
There are wonders to uncover.
