

Responsibility: it's important to care for people and animals.

People and animals need love and protection, a home, and food. It's your responsibility to offer your family, friends, and pets everything you can so that they have a happy and healthy life.

1 Draw the circles in your notebook. Write the animals in the correct circle.

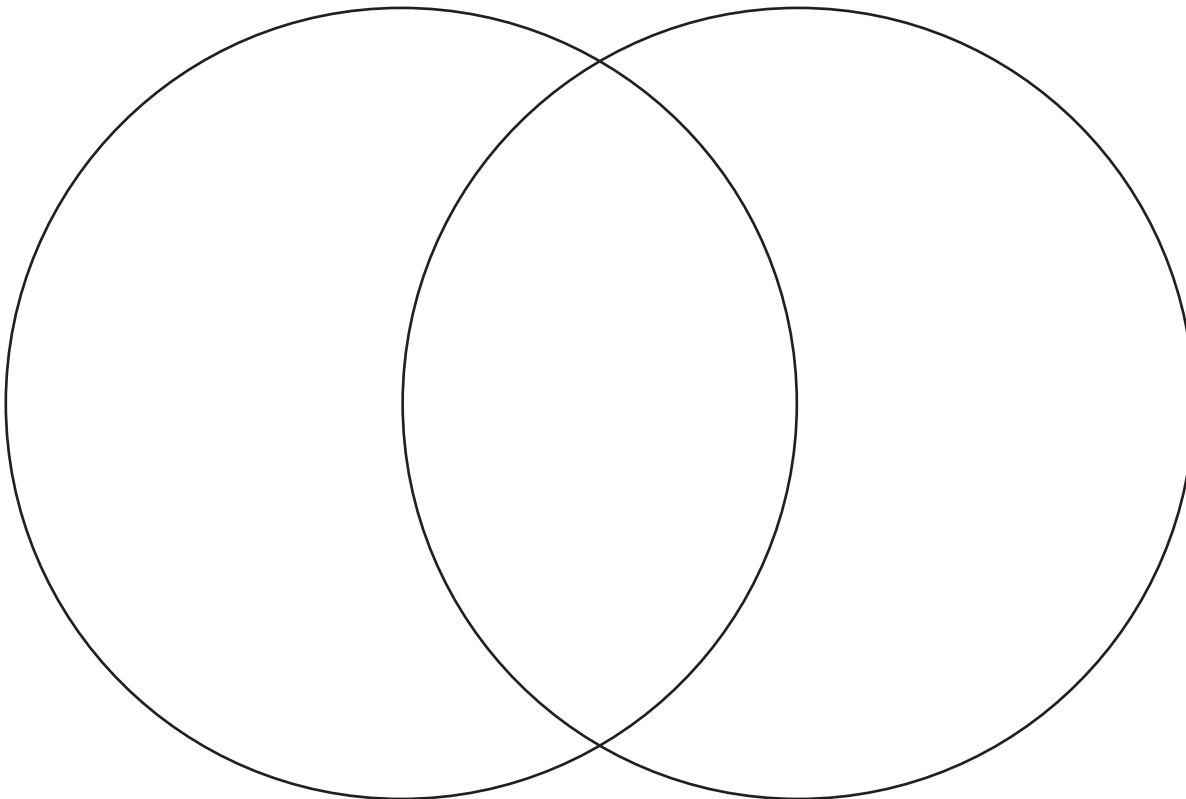

Some animals belong in both circles – put them in the middle.

Write any wild animals outside the circles.

Add more examples of pets and farm animals in the correct place and write the words in the box.
