

The Wheels books include Values lessons in which children are encouraged to behave well and respect others. We can use this poster to help children to practise self-control in the classroom environment.

When you need silence in class, point to '0 talking in class'. When only one person is talking and everybody else needs to listen, point to '1 talking in class'. When more than 1 person can talk at their table or with a friend, point to '2 talking in class'.

Want to learn more about the Wheels books? Contact your local sales representative.
www.macmillanenglish.com/hop-on-the-learning-wheel

