NILE Macmillan Education Partnership

Macmillan Education and Norwich Institute for Language Education (NILE) have joined to develop and promote quality teacher development programmes worldwide.

NILE is a world-leading centre of excellence in the provision of teacher development courses, supporting English language teachers and trainers at every stage of their ELT careers. Together, NILE and Macmillan Education are preparing the teachers of today for the teaching of tomorrow.

As the partnership strengthens, NILE and Macmillan Education are collaborating with the launch of their first jointly developed programmes, further supporting language teaching and learning worldwide.

About NILE

NILE has trained over 40,000 teachers from more than 90 countries since 1995. From its base in the historic city of Norwich, NILE offers courses and consultancy in the UK and overseas, both face-to-face and online.

Today, NILE works with educational professionals across all areas of ELT, from teachers at primary to tertiary level, to universities and government ministries.

NILE is the highest ranking teacher development institute in the UK based on British Council and Equals inspections, and scored 92% in the category of Teaching and Learning in industry magazine EL Gazette's 2017 analysis of the British Council inspection reports, the highest score by any school under any heading.

Why Study with NILE?

Expert Tutors

The team at NILE are experts in their fields and have extensive experience in designing and delivering courses for teachers, as well as in teaching English. The team includes coursebook writers and ESOL examiners, and NILE's Advisory Board includes ELT professionals with international reputations.

Tailored for Teachers

With a comprehensive range of courses and choice of delivery mode, teachers will find a NILE programme to suit their professional contexts and personal requirements. Teachers will benefit from hands-on teaching and the opportunity to engage with colleagues from around the world and, whether online or in person, they will gain practical skills for the classroom and a boost for their teaching career.

NILE was the first institute to be accredited by the British Council for the provision of teachers' courses, and all NILE's courses include a significant element of language improvement.

NILE is accredited by Eaquals, by AQUEDUTO for its online programme, and the British Council for the teaching of English. It is a member of English UK, an official examination centre for Cambridge exams, as well as one of the few private UK institutions accredited to run courses leading to postgraduate qualifications.

In 2015 NILE co-founded The Association for Quality Education and Training Online (AQUEDUTO), a charitable organisation dedicated to evaluating blended and online training courses against a quality assured pedagogical framework.

NILE Macmillan Education Courses

NILE and Macmillan Education have collaborated to bring teachers a jointly developed programme of online courses by combining NILE's expertise in teacher development courses with the Macmillan Education commitment to quality teaching resources.

Practical Language for Teaching: Primary

Practical Language for Teaching: Secondary

These six-week courses are for teachers who wish to improve their own English language use in the classroom and learn practical tips and techniques for making their communicative language teaching more effective.

The courses use examples from NILE's expert tutors and videos from real classrooms to bring learning to life. There are also many opportunities to share ideas and experiences with teachers from all over the world.

Teaching through English: Primary Maths

This eight-week course is designed specifically for teachers in international or English-medium schools in countries where English is not the first language. Teachers will develop confidence and skills for delivering maths ideas and concepts in English to achieve the best learning outcomes for students.

Comprising eight modules, the training programme can be delivered flexibly with tutored and non-tutored pathways, as well as bespoke face-to-face options.

Online Courses

NILE's tutor-led, interactive courses provide flexibility to balance professional development and a full-time teaching schedule.

NILE Online courses are delivered on an innovative and easy-to-use online teaching platform.

Cutting-edge digital tools allow teachers to interact with their tutor and other teachers around the world in a variety of ways. Learning is put into practical use through tutor-marked individual assignments at the end of the course.

These courses add the flexibility of online learning to the elements of NILE's face-to-face courses that participants appreciate most: collaboration, relevance, and engagement.

Tailor-Made Courses and Consultancy

NILE sends expert consultants and trainers around the world to provide practical guidance and support across the field of English language education.

Case Studies

“It has been a pleasure to have received teaching from such a highly prepared and experienced tutor. A very enriching experience.”

Cecilia Leite, Uruguay

“Both trainers were highly committed and that made me respond accordingly.”

Patricia Sánchez, Argentina

“Thank you for working together and producing an astonishing output of test items in a short period.”

Bickram Shrestha, British Council, Nepal

Tailor-Made Courses

With the flexibility to accommodate a variety of requirements, NILE's tailor-made courses are designed to suit education ministries, universities and other educational organisations. Courses can be delivered as online, face to face (in the UK or in-country) or a blend of the two.

The NILE-Macmillan Education partnership offers institutions an effective, single solution for English language learning materials and training, supporting institutions to meet the changing needs in education while achieving the best results for both teachers and students.

As partners, Macmillan Education offers exclusive pricing on all tailor-made courses with NILE, ensuring courses can suit budget needs.

Consultancy and Training

NILE has extensive experience in designing programmes to meet objectives for national teacher training, curriculum and institutional development. NILE's team of internationally recognised consultants regularly manage and deliver large-scale projects for major government-funded groups of teachers.

Consultancies are always designed for specific contexts to meet client needs, with NILE consultants able to support the delivery of project outcomes.

Project areas in the past have included curriculum renewal, syllabus design, testing and assessment, and materials development, as well as teacher training, trainer training and continuing professional development.

Institutions NILE has worked with

Certified Courses

NILE offers certified training qualification courses as well as a postgraduate programme to support ELT professionals develop their career.

Case Studies

“The benefits of the course were immediate; you could see the change in the way you approach things, the way you deal with assessment of materials, and with teaching. It helped me immensely.”

Meher Ben Lakhdhar, MA, Oman

“A fantastic experience. I was thrown into teaching practice straight away. All feedback was thorough, constructive, and I felt fully supported throughout.”

Madeleine Woodfield, CELTA

CELTA

The Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (CELTA) is an initial training qualification to teach English as a foreign language.

In this 120-hour intensive face-to-face course, experienced tutors deliver input sessions on methodology and language awareness. Through supervised teaching practice and lesson observations, trainee teachers develop the practical skills and confidence they need to start teaching.

Delta

The Diploma in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (Delta) is a highly regarded advanced qualification for experienced English language teachers. NILE's online modular Delta course is tailored to support candidates globally, offering teachers the flexibility to complete each independent module when they choose.

Both CELTA and Delta are awarded by Cambridge Assessment English, part of the University of Cambridge.

MA in Professional Development for Language Education

Validated by the University of Chichester, NILE's MA in Professional Development for Language Education (MAPDLE) is a comprehensive postgraduate programme for ELT professionals wishing to develop their specialist skills. The NILE MA can be completed over a period of up to six years with modules delivered both online and face to face.

Candidates can study towards a full MA (180 credits) or use fewer credits (60 or 120) to gain a postgraduate certificate or diploma qualification.
