Two Changed Cities

Do you know the history of Dubai and Austin?

In old Dubai, there was a small town. There was a big desert, but there weren't any tall buildings. There wasn't a shopping center. There was a market to buy fish and spices.

Austin was also very different. There was a river. There were some farms. There were horses, but there weren't any cars or trains. There wasn't a big road or a train station.

Today, Dubai has many tall buildings. There are many shopping centers.

Austin has music festivals, and there are many people living there. Is your city different now?
