Rin-Rin Frog's Night Out

Rin-Rin Frog, his mother's passion, dressed up nice in perfect fashion.
"Stay home, please!" his mother cried,
but out went Rin-Rin, full of pride.

Soon he made a new friend, Mouse,
and followed him to Ms. Rat's house.
They reached her door and rang the bell,
Ms. Rat greeted them, looking well.

They played the guitar, started singing,
And danced around with hearts so clinging.
But suddenly, the Cat jumped inside,
And Mouse cried, "Quick! Run and hide!"

Rin-Rin Frog ran out the door.
He lost his hat; the shirt he tore.
Home in rags, Mom hugged him tight,
"Next time, you'll stay home at night!"

By Rafael Pombo (adapted).

3 Check (✓) the most appropriate final stanza for the poem.

1 What does the text show?

2 What is it about?

3 What is it for?

4 Where can you see similar texts?

2 Read again. Match (A-E) with the information in Activity 1.

- ☐ Colombia connects South America with Central and North America.
- ☐ Americans love visiting Colombia.
- ☐ There's a tradition to celebrate every month in Colombia.
- ☐ Colombian coffee is popular in many different countries.
- ☐ There are many different kinds of animals in Colombia.

THINK TWICE

- 1 What can you conclude from the graphs in Activity 1?
- 2 Is it easier to understand all this information in a written text or a graph? Why?

1 Read and answer.

Daniel, Camila, and Luis are going to talk about Colombia. They decide on these rules for having a discussion:

- 1 Listen to others.
- 2 Comment on your classmates' ideas.
- 3 One person speaks at a time.

Are these good or bad rules?

2 Listen and read. Then underline examples of rule 2.

Camila: So, what do you know about Colombian coffee?

Daniel: I know it's very famous.

Luis: Yes, my mom drinks Colombian coffee every morning. She loves it!

Camila: I read that coffee is an important export in Colombia.

Luis: I read that too. It's good for the country's economy.

Daniel: Sure! But why is Colombian coffee so popular?

Camila: It's because it comes from high in the mountains. That makes it taste awesome.

3 Discuss a product from your country. Follow the steps.

As a class:

- 1 Brainstorm products from your country.
- 2 List the rules for the discussion.

Individually:

- 3 Choose a product and do some research about it.
- 4 Write two facts about the product.

In groups:

- 5 Have a discussion. Follow the rules.

REMEMBER!

- Start with "So, what do you know about ...?".
- Comment on your classmates' ideas.
